

Arkansas Has Four Races for State Offices

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The political lists are closed for the July 26 Democratic primary and candidates will spend the next month plotting campaigns before they fan out over the state for intensive stumping.

Arkansas has four races for state offices and two contests for congressional posts—enough to assure an active political summer. Most attention on the state level will be directed to the gubernatorial race where four candidates oppose Gov. Orval E. Faubus' bid for a fourth term. In addition, there are two-way contests for attorney general, lieutenant governor and land commissioner.

Rep. Dale Alford, who defeated the Democratic nominee with a whirlwind write-in campaign in the 1958 general election, is opposed by State Sen. Robert Hays Williams in the Fifth Congressional District. Williams said yesterday he expects the main issue to be party loyalty.

Rep. J. W. Trimble is opposed by Donald Poe of Waldron in the Third District.

Sen. John L. McClellan; Reps. E. C. Gathings, Wilbur Mills, Oren Harris and W. F. Norrell; Secretary of State C. G. Hall; State Auditor Jimmie Jones; State Treasurer J. Vance Clayton; Chief Justice Carleton Harris of the Supreme Court and Justice Paul Ward can relax.

They drew no opposition as the Democratic ticket closed at noon yesterday.

Land Commissioner Sam Jones lost one of his two foes when R.D. Randolph of Ratcliff failed to pay his filing fee. That left Jones opposed by Paul D. Henshaw of Jonesboro.

Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon has LeRoy Hickman, a Little Rock real estate man, as an opponent. Gordon had not had opposition since 1950.

Prosecutor Frank Holt and Amis Guthridge, both of Little Rock, are vying for the attorney general's job being vacated by gubernatorial aspirant Bruce Bennett.

Girls Wanted in Beauty Contest Here

The Hope Jaycees will sponsor the Southwest District, Miss Poultry Princess Contest, to be held in connection with the Poultry Festival, which will be held in Hope June 17.

The winner of this contest will represent this district in the Arkansas, Miss Poultry Princess Contest, to be held in Little Rock June 24 and 25.

The winner of the Arkansas Miss Poultry Princess Contest will represent Arkansas in the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant, to be held in Miami Beach, Fla. July 2-9.

Any girl who is a permanent resident of Arkansas and will be 18 years of age prior to June 1, 1960 is eligible to enter this contest.

Judging will be in both bathing suit and evening dress. Contestants will be judged for beauty of face and figure and for charm and poise.

Entry forms may be secured from the Chamber of Commerce or Hope Jaycees. These forms must be completed and returned to the C of C before May 15.

New Quake Adds to Woes of Iran

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A new heavy earthquake today struck the ruined city of Lar, adding five more deaths to the 360 persons known to have perished in Sunday's quakes, the Iranian Red Cross said.

Three of the victims were caught while searching the ruins of the southern city for bodies of missing relatives and for personal effects.

The Red Cross said two others were walking in the street when the earthquake sent shaky mud-brick walls crashing down on them.

Most of the area's 17,000 inhabitants are housed in tent cities or simply living out in the fields.

Demonstrations

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Following the lead of students in South Korea, students today demonstrated against the Turkish government's three-month ban on all political activities. They clashed briefly with police. About 600 refused to go to classes at Istanbul University.

Train Hits Car, Driver Escapes

Missouri Pacific Train No. 330 hit an auto driven by Horace Stone about 12:30 p. m. yesterday at the L&A and MOP intersection on Louisiana Street. Mr. Stone, of Emmet Rd. 1, was not injured. City Police Clark said. His auto was badly damaged.

Downtown on Main Street yesterday an auto driven by J. C. Kennedy went out of control and hit a light pole at Second and Main. Mr. Kennedy, whom Officers Fullerton and Clark said apparently blacked out, was not injured. His auto was damaged considerably.

Find Coffin Caves

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Two steel coffin covers—each weighing 450 pounds—found from Ohio to Mississippi were found Wednesday on the banks of White Oak Bayou. Lt. Roxie Simmons said police were unable to determine how the covers were shipped or how they ended up near the bayou. They were found in cardboard and steel bands.

Picket Canadians

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—A picket line was set up throughout the United Arab Republic's Syrian ports today against all Canadian cargo ships and tankers. The picketing was in retaliation for the picketing of the U.A.R.-owned ship Star of Assuan in Montreal Wednesday.

Senior Play 'Situations' Interesting

Filled with interesting comedy situations, a sentiment-loving heroine, a forceful hero, and happy-go-lucky collegians, the Hope High School senior play "So We'll Just Pretend" is scheduled for the afternoon of April 28 and 8 p. m. April 29.

Included in the cast are seven sorority sisters played by Carole Coop, Suzanne Somerville, Julia Peck, Sandra Russell, Judy Kaye, Wright, Shirley Allen, and Edwina Whitman.

Charles Coop, a five-foot bundle of energy, is a present Hi-Lights editor-in-chief, a member of National Honor Society, and Music Makers reporter. Suzanne Somerville, tall and striking, is a member of the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, and co-business manager of the Bobcat.

Julia Peck, pert and inquisitive, as Music Makers and FFA treasurer, a member of the 1960 Homecoming Court. Sandra Russell, a top-sixteen senior, is valedictorian of the 1960 Senior Class, a member of the National Honor Society, and program chairman of the Music Makers.

Judy Kaye Wright, 1958 Bobcat Beauty Queen, is at present FTA president, cheerleader captain, and a member of the National Honor Society. Shirley Allen, top-sixteen senior, actively participates in the National Honor Society, Future Homemakers of America and Music Makers.

Edwina Whitman, vivacious and friendly, is vice president of the Library Club, reporter of Music Makers, and a member of the National Honor Society.

"All students, whether in minor or major parts, contribute so much to the success of the play," says Mrs. B. B. McPherson, play director.

Wins Endorsement

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Macmillan's government Wednesday night won expected parliamentary endorsement for its abandonment of Britain's Blue Streak missile in favor of an American missile. The government said separate development of a British missile would waste money.

Objectives for Summit Meet Told to CENTO

By JOSEPH E. DYMAN

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told members of the Central Treaty Organization today the United States will continue to give strong support to their alliance against communism.

"The United States sponsored the organization when it was formed as the Baghdad Pact several years ago but did not become a full member. It has separate alliances with several CENTO members, and Herter said America's indirect CENTO ties would continue in the interests of world peace.

He said President Eisenhower is going to next month's summit meeting in Paris as part of his "unwavering quest for peace."

The Shah of Iran welcomed the ministers and declared that CENTO's three Muslim members—Iran, Pakistan and Turkey—stand solidly behind their Western Allies.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd of Britain gave the CENTO members an outline of three Western objectives for the summit meeting.

Speaking at the opening session of the CENTO ministerial council meeting in the Iranian Senate chamber, Lloyd stressed disarmament as the prime Western aim and said progress toward an international settlement could best be obtained in this way:

"Firstly, a genuine and concrete beginning along the road to comprehensive disarmament under effective international control.

Fines Doubled Against Five Sitdowners

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fines and jail sentences assessed against five Negro demonstrators were doubled yesterday in Pulaski Circuit Court where the cases were heard on appeal.

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby found the Negroes guilty of "willful and malicious" violation of a state law against disturbing the peace.

They were arrested March 10 while staging a sitdown demonstration against lunch counter segregation at a downtown variety store.

Kirby assessed a $500 fine and a 60-day jail term against each defendant. The five—all students at Philander Smith College for Negroes—were fined $250 each and given 30-day jail terms in Municipal Court. They appealed.

When a sentence is appealed to circuit court, the case is retried. Attorneys for the Negroes indicated Kirby's decision would be appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court. The defendants remained free on bonds of $1,000 each.

"This court is going to do all it can to preserve the peace of the community against willful violations," Kirby declared before fixing punishment.

The defendants were Chester Briggs, 18, of Hot Springs; Vernon Mott, 19, of Little Rock; Charles Parker, 22, of St. Louis; Frank James, 21, of Oklahoma City; and Eldridge Davis, 19, of Malvern.

Clark Took Payola Says House Trio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three House members said today they have little or no doubt that Dick Clark is involved in payola.

Clark, a network TV disc jockey, says he has not taken undercover payments or favors for promoting records.

A witness testified Wednesday that Clark had received $31,575 for advising a "record" firm on what tunes would sell well. He also said Clark was allowed to buy a one-fourth interest in a Philadelphia record firm for $125—an interest he said Clark sold last year for about $15,000.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Fla.), a member of the House subcommittee which is looking into broadcasting practices, said today "It appears Clark took a very profitable form of payola."

Clark, a favorite of many teenagers, is due to appear Friday before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee. But his name has come up often during two days of reopened hearings on undercover influences that may control the kind of music heard on the nation's airwaves.

Reps. John B. Bennett (R-Mich.) and Peter F. Mack (D-Ill.) agreed largely with Moss' comment to a newsman.

New Trial Likely

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Two young killers faced a new trial today after a judge died on the eve of sentencing them to life imprisonment or death in the gas chamber.

Robert Fulmer, 20, and Charles Lindstrom, 19, won a new trial Wednesday. They had confessed the Jan. 17 gun slaying of dairy attendant Leonard Moore during a robbery attempt.

Judge Joseph M. Maltby died Tuesday of a stroke.

Brock Sent to Hospital for Mental Test

Wayne Brock, charged in the fatal shooting of his young wife last Jan. 25, was sent to the State Hospital for a mental examination yesterday.

Judge Lyle Brown ordered the commitment after Brock's attorney, O. Byron Hurst, of Hot Springs, changed the plea for his client from innocent to innocent because of temporary insanity.

Trial of the 20-year-old Brock has been set for May 12. It probably will be postponed if the State Hospital examination has not been completed by then.

Mrs. Brock, a 17-year-old mother, was killed at the couple's home here.

The hearing before Judge Brown was held at Arkadelphia.

Outbreak in Istanbul Takes Lives of Four

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—The government proclaimed martial law today following an outbreak of student rioting against Premier Adnan Menderes.

At least four persons were reported killed as thousands of students broke through police lines around the University of Istanbul and swarmed through the city demanding Menderes' resignation.

The demonstrations were sparked when the Menderes government ordered a three-month ban on all political activities.

About 6,000 students rushed through police cordons around the university and headed for the center of the city. Forty students and police were injured in the force fights.

Witnesses said they saw three students and one policeman killed in the crush in front of the university. Police said they could not confirm these reports.

In view of the developing situation Menderes earlier had called off a flight to Iran to attend a meeting of the Central Treaty Organization.

About 800 university students refused to go to classes.

They marched down the streets singing the nation's independence anthem and shouting slogans praising the Korean youth who brought down the government of Syngman Rhee this week.

Police managed to herd the students into the university grounds.

Recent political developments in Turkey and South Korea display some parallels. Both lie on the edge of the Communist world, and both have developed fierce anti-Communist policies under pressure from the Reds.

But the governments in both countries also became increasingly authoritarian in recent years. Rhee's government fell amid opposition charges that his party tried to fix last month's elections. The Turkish opposition charges it is being hindered in election campaigning here.

Today's outbreak followed passage of a bill Wednesday night in the Turkish Parliament broadening the powers of a parliamentary committee that has been investigating the opposition Republican party of ex-President Ismet Inonu.

Established by Parliament April 18, the committee is controlled by Menderes' Democratic party.

All political activity has been suspended during the investigation.

The new bill also empowers parliamentary investigators to stop, seize or suspend publications breaking the committee's decrees; seize any documents desired by the investigators; and impose sentences up to three years in prison for violators of the committee's rulings.

Committee Offers Wells Settlement

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state House Efficiency Committee has acted to settle a controversial claim by John F. Wells of Little Rock for payment for copies of his Legislative Digest.

The committee offered to pay Wells $4,400 of the $9,400 claim, providing a pending lawsuit in connection with the claim is dismissed.

Wells, former publisher of the Arkansas Recorder, a weekly newspaper, furnished copies of the Digest to 54 members of the 1959 Legislature, who ordered it although the Efficiency Committee had voted against buying the Digest.

The Recorder since has been sold. One of its new owners is Perry Rep. Paul Van Dalsen, a member of the Efficiency Committee.

who would receive the pledges, today.

He was told that Morgan was in Arizona and Flowers, in Colorado.

BALLISTIC BOOST—A new high in civilian air travel is shown in this futuristic drawing. Carried piggyback to 120,000 feet by a booster plane, left, a rocket-powered, "hypersonic" transport takes off for a 15,000-m.p.h. trip into near space. When top speed and an altitude of 40 miles are reached, the "boost-glide" transport cuts its power and glides to its destination on another continent. A small jet engine assists in landing. It could happen in the 1980-90 period, according to Lester Faneuf, Bell Aircraft executive. Estimated cost of developing the system is rounded off at one billion dollars, making government aid necessary for its success.

Steak, Roast, Fryers Best Market Bets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Steaks, roasts and fryers are getting the promotion play this weekend in the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Artichokes, beets, cabbage, asparagus and broccoli are best buys in many markets. New onions and rhubarb are making their debuts in some sections.

The accent on beef is due to the arrival on the markets of the first runs from the feed lots where a record numbers of cattle are being slaughtered. Housewives can hope for lower prices in the weeks ahead.

Promotions aside, the price picture in meats is thoroughly mixed. Many markets are appealing to the budget-minded shopper with such standbys as hamburger, and frankfurters.

Fryers and broilers are also coming to market at lower prices in many cities.

Some lucky cities are finding prices of sirloin steaks and rib roasts cut this week.

In fish the specials run from foulard to codfish cakes. New York markets are celebrating spring with offerings of Shad roe.

Eggs prices softened in some stores, although the longer outlook is for higher prices. Poultry raisers have been cutting back on egg production since the glut during the winter supplied their take.

Spring is starting the flow of fresh vegetables into many markets. Northerners are now getting beets and radishes from North Carolina and cabbage from Georgia, as well as celery from Florida.

Fruit stands are featuring pineapples, grapefruit, oranges, bananas and coconuts. Markets report plentiful supplies of avocados, lemons and honeydew melons from Chile.

Housing Bill Runs Into Race Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—An amendment to bar racial discrimination threatened new trouble today for backers of a billion-dollar housing bill.

The measure, which may come to a vote in the House today, is opposed by most Republicans and many Southern Democrats.

One of the opposing Republicans, Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio, served notice that the racial issue would be raised. He said the proposed amendment would deny use of the bill's billion-dollar mortgage buying fund for housing in which there is discrimination on account of race.

Such an amendment would put Northern Democratic backers of the bill on the spot. To vote against it might impair their civil rights records, but to vote for it would imperil the bill.

On the first test vote Wednesday, the question whether to consider the measure at all, enough Southern Democrats left the Republican-Southern coalition to give the bill a favorable preliminary vote of 214-158. But a provision against segregation in housing would probably solidify Southern opposition.

The main provision of the bill is the billion-dollar fund with which the Federal National Mortgage Assn. could purchase at face value government-backed mortgages on low and moderate priced homes.

That goes considerably beyond what President Eisenhower recommended.

Irish Feel Blast

BELFAST, Northern Ireland
(AP)—Three explosions shattered the peace of the Irish border within two hours today. Northern Ireland police blamed the outlawed Irish Republican Army, which wants to unite British-ruled Northern Ireland with the neighboring Irish Republic.

The saboteurs, who escaped into the Irish Republic, damaged two customs posts and an electric transformer in County Armagh.

Takes $6 Million to Shed This One

DARIEN, Ga. (AP)—The third wife of Richard J. Reynolds, the ailing, 64-year-old tobacco multimillionaire, says it will take a six-million-dollar divorce settlement or $200,000 annual separate support to maintain her as she has become accustomed.

The former Muriel Marston, 41, spelled out her settlement terms court.

In an amended answer Monday to her husband's divorce suit, the action in which literally hundreds of motions, petitions and pleadings have been filed, is set for trial May 2.

Attorneys said that Reynolds, who lives in a palatial establishment at nearby Sapelo Island, is in no mood for talk of a settlement of any kind. Any money
Mrs. Reynolds obtains, they declared, will have to be won in court.

variously estimated at between three and nine millions on his first wife, the former Elizabeth Dillard, mother of four of his children. He settled two million on Marianne O'Brien Reynolds, his second wife and mother of two children.

The present Mrs. Reynolds, whom he married in 1952, has no children.

The Keokuk Dam, which was built in 1913 on the Mississippi River in Iowa, is 63 feet high.

honor attendants were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Valdene Tonnemaker, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Carl Ward. They carried aqua feathered carnations. Attendants wore nose-length veils to match their dresses and short white gloves. The latter were gifts of the bride.

Mrs. Tonnemaker, mother of the bride, wore a pink lace dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Mitchell, mother of the groom, was attired in light blue with beige accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Carl Willis of Sumner, Ark., sister and brother-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Freddie MacArthur of Arkadelphia, Ark., Jim Chambers of Memphis, Mrs. A. M. Hulse, and Mrs. Thurston Hulse of Washington.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip to Memphis, the bride wore a beige suit with a matching blouse trimmed with brown with bone accessories and pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder. The couple are at home on Pecan Street in Hope.

Mr. Mitchell is a graduate of Henderson State Teachers College and is a member of Hope High School faculty. Mrs. Mitchell is a graduate of Hope High School and at present is employed by Sears, Roebuck & Co. in Hope.

DOROTHY DIX

Do We Love More Than Once?

Dear Dorothy Dix: I have been so in love with you ever since I read your column. I am a single woman and I want to rent a dairy farm to make my own way. I am a single woman, no one wants to rent me a farm, yet I expect to hire my own help and have a few dairy cows. What is your advice? I am unable to go out to work.—Miss G.

Dear Miss G.: Your plan to rent a dairy farm has possibilities. I am writing this letter for a friend. She was going with a boy for six months when he broke with her. She still likes him, I have a feeling he still likes her. He is going around with another girl but not steady. All my friend gets out of him is a "Hill" now and then. Is there any way to win him back? Please write your letter if handled on a business-like basis and provided you know something about dairies. In any case, it would be wise to take a course in dairy farming at the State Agricultural School before you invest. Then you'll know precisely what you want and how to go about getting it. Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of this newspaper.

Arkansas Has

of Siloam Springs signed up to oppose Faubus. Millsap was a surprise candidate, filing two hours before the deadline.

Segregation and the fourth term are likely to be the main issues in the gubernatorial race, although all candidates except Millsap and Faubus have declared themselves to be segregationists. Faubus is on record against "forced integration" and he got strong segregationist backing in 1958.

Faubus already has charged that Hardin, Bennett and Williams were encouraged to run against him by what the governor called hard-core integrationists. All have denied the assertion.

No candidate has yet named the personnel of his campaign organization. Faubus has aides experienced in a statewide race. Bennett made one state race—for his first term in 1956. He was unopposed in 1958.

The hard campaigning is not expected to begin before June 1. Although the crowded field may force an earlier start. Meanwhile, the candidates will content themselves with occasional shots at their opponents while filling invitational speaking dates wherever they can get them.

Both Bennett and Faubus are stumblers. They like to get out in the field and shake hands, solicit votes on the face to face level, make a speech to the small crowd on the court house lawn. Williams has indicated he intends to follow this pattern. Hardin and Millsap's plans are not known.

Williams the congressional candidate also is a stumper, and he has stumping experience in the five smaller counties of the Fifth District. He represents Pope, Conway and Perry counties as a state senator and also has represented Yell and Faulkner counties as prosecutor.

Alford depended principally on television to defeat Brooks Hays in 1958. He did not announce his candidacy until eight days before the election and he did not have time to get into the field. However, he has circulated widely in the district in the past year and a half.

Alford campaigned principally as a segregationist opposed to Hays' moderate views. Williams said yesterday segregation will not be an issue this year unless Alford makes it so. He charged Alford, by running against Hays, ignored his Democratic party pledge and said this will be the key issue.

Alford replied from Washington that he has always been a Democrat and indicated he is willing to argue this issue in the campaign.

The Holt-Guthridge race could develop into a corker. Neither has made a statewide race before. Guthridge ran unsuccessfully twice for congressman of the Fifth District. Holt won three terms as prosecutor for Pulaski and Perry counties.

Both are well-known over the state — Guthridge as a segregationist leader and Holt for his activities as prosecutor in several widely publicized cases such as the Emmett Earl Leggett murder case and the Little Rock dynamite.

Neither Trimble nor Poe has outlined the issue in the Third Congressional District. Trimble, who is accustomed to opposition, usually runs on his record. Poe filed early and has been quiet since.

But the quiet in this and other races is not expected to last long.

Family of Rhee's Aid Is Suicide

By GENE KRAMER

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Lee Ki-poong, his wife and two sons committed suicide today in oriental atonement for the revolt Lee's election as South Korea's vice president touched off.

Ten hours after Lee and his family died in a cottage on the grounds of the presidential mansion, the chief casualty of the revolt, ex-President Syngman Rhee, left the president's house 100 yards away and was driven with his Austrian-born wife to a modest hillside villa where they took up life as private citizens.

Sentimental, friendly crowds along Rhee's route applauded him and women wept in sharp contrast to the bloody rioting which forced the 85-year-old father of modern Korea to end his 12-year rule over South Korea.

The old man waved and smiled occasionally at the crowds. Rhee's successor, Acting President Huh Chung, named six independentists to his cabinet, bringing the new government to nine members. All politically independent, they include a noted surgeon, an educator and two bankers.

Still vacant is the key post of minister of defense, as well as the agriculture and communications ministries.

Four more members of the National Assembly, all members of Rhee's Liberal party, resigned today. The Assembly had demanded that they quit, charging they were involved in rigging the March 15 elections which named Rhee to a fourth term and Lee Ki-poong to the vice presidency.

Earlier Huh's government issued warrants for the arrest of the former home minister, Choi In-kyu and six others charged ings. Holt is the younger brother of Jack Holt, former attorney general and gubernatorial candidate, who is expected to use his influence in his brother's behalf.

Guthridge and Holt are long time foes. They broke openly over the prosecution of E. A. Lauderdale, a Capital Citizens Council officer, in connection with the Labor Day dynamitings here.

Guthridge, a close friend to Lauderdale, was for a time his attorney. Holt won the case and Lauderdale was sentenced to three years in prison on a bombing charge. The case is on appeal.

Both Guthridge and Holt promise vigorous campaigns. Holt has announced no platform. Guthridge said segregation would be the main issue and charged Holt had the backing of Little Rock moderates.

Neither Trimble nor Poe has outlined the issue in the Third Congressional District. Trimble, who is accustomed to opposition, usually runs on his record. Poe filed early and has been quiet since.

But the quiet in this and other races is not expected to last long.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter read a message to the ministers from President Eisenhower expressing the President's confidence that the current CENTO meeting would prove fruitful.

The three day discussions with allies string across the gap between West European NATO and the Far Eastern SEATO alliance were regarded as an important step for the United States and Britain before confronting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Paris.

Although not a formal member of CENTO, the United States is aligned both militarily and economically with the alliance made up of Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Britain. CENTO is an offshoot of the Baghdad Pact. The name was changed after Iraq withdrew.

The 24-member U.S. delegation is the largest here for the eighth session of the alliance's ministerial council. After the public opening, the talks through Saturday will be behind closed doors.

With the summit negotiations opening in Paris May 1, Herter and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd plan to get the views of their Middle Eastern allies on the world situation and to seek their support for the course the Western Big Three plan to follow in the Paris talks.

Little League Sets Baseball Tryout Dates

Little League tryouts, for all boys in the Hope School District, will be held at K-Park Monday and Tuesday, May 2nd and 3rd immediately after school.

Tryouts for boys with last names beginning with A through O will be held on Monday afternoon and those with names beginning with P through Z will tryout Tuesday afternoon. Boys trying out are asked to come to the park with their glove and seat themselves on the bleachers until they are called onto the field so as to be able to give every boy a fair tryout with a minimum of interference. In case of rain, the tryouts will be held on the first dry day following the scheduled date.

All Little League managers are urged to be present for the tryouts as to have as many judging each player as possible and eliminate any mistakes in estimating a player's ability.

Any player whose age is disputable will be required to furnish acceptable proof of age to league officials before the tryouts are held.

All players who played in the Doctors League last year will be required to try out unless they are ill. Any boy who is unable to tryout because of illness will be excused but his name should be turned in to league officials and a card filled out and signed by both parents before the player action which will be held shortly after the tryouts.

Pony League tryouts will be held soon after the Little League sessions and announcements will be made pertaining to the date.

Broad Jump Mark Likely to Remain

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The best record on the books is the least likely to be broken in the 51st running of the Drake Relays here Friday and Saturday.

Jesse Owens leaped 26 feet 1 1/2 inches in 1935 to set a broad jump mark that hasn't been beaten. Jim Baird of East Texas State is favored in that event this year, but he isn't expected to better his best jump of 25 feet 3/4 inches enough to threaten Owens' mark.

The next oldest record is the 731.6 two-mile relay mark set by Illinois in 1952.

It and other records will be assaulted by a field that includes three of the world's top shotputters, the nation's leading pole vaulter and many of the country's fleetest runners.

Parry O'Brien, Bill Nieder and Dave Davis have entered the AAU shot put in a match that climaxes a verbal duel between O'Brien and Nieder.

They have accused each other of dodging previous head-to-head scraps.

Palmer Big Favorite at Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—Arnold Palmer was a heavy favorite for today's start of the $35,000 Houston Golf Classic despite a final practice round 65 by Ray Herbert.

Palmer, with the Masters and four other 1960 titles already recorded, was a 4-1 favorite to win the second tournament here with in three years.

Quoted at 6-1 were Ken Venturi, winner of the Bing Crosby Invitational, and powerful Mike Souchak, the 1955 Houston winner who likes the long fairways at the 7,122-yard, par 72 Memorial Park course.

Jack Burke Jr., the defending champion and gallery favorite, and Billy Casper, National Open champion, drew 8-1 odds.

Until Tuesday, Palmer had not played a round of golf since winning the Masters nearly three weeks ago. He warmed up Tuesday with a 70 and followed Wednesday with a 72.

Herbert had a 32-33-65 Wednesday for the 36-36 layout.

Trio Praised by Porker Coach

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Junior quarterback George McKinney, end Tim Langston and line backer Charlie Moore have drawn special praise from Arkansas football coach Frank Broyles.

After reviewing films of a four-team round-robin scrimmage, Broyles yesterday singled out Moore and Langston for their defensive work and noted that McKinney's play in spring drills is the best since he entered the university. McKinney is quarterbacking the first unit.

The Razorbacks tone up today and tomorrow for a game-condition scrimmage scheduled Saturday.

In the Air Force, has thrown the shot 65 feet 7 inches. O'Brien holds the accepted world record of 63.4. Davis, of San Fernando State, defeated O'Brien last week and has pitched the shot 64-10 1/2.

Another headliner is J. D. Martin of Oklahoma, who soared 15 feet 8 inches in the pole vault earlier this spring. The Drake record is 15 feet 1/4 inch.

Pirates Riding a Six Game Winning Streak

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
They're a year late, but the Pittsburgh Pirates, a bunch of battling Bucs who have made their slim pitching pay off, are riding a six-game winning streak atop the National League standings.

Last year was supposed to be the Pirates' year, after finishing second in 1958. But they lost their first five never got higher than third and finished fourth. And that's where they were generally figured this year.

Now, with Bob Skinner driving in two runs and Vern Law winning his third without defeat in a 3-2 victory at Philadelphia Wednesday night, the Pirates have a full-game lead over the San Francisco Giants.

The Los Angeles Dodgers stayed within two games of first by beating the Chicago Cubs 9-4. Milwaukee held fourth, defeating Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other game scheduled in the NL.

In the American League, Detroit's Tigers lost their second in a row, 3-1 at Kansas City, but retained a half-game edge over the New York Yankees, who were beaten 5-4 by Washington. Baltimore dropped Boston 8-3. Chicago and Cleveland were not scheduled.

Skinner, one of five Bucs battling over .350, was 2-for-2. His sacrifice fly gave the Pirates a run in the third against loser Jack Meyer (0-1), and then he brought the clincher home in the fifth with a single after Dick Groat (.354) had doubled.

The Dodgers, who won Tuesday at Chicago with a four-hit job by Don Drysdale, swept the two-game series behind the four-hit pitching of Roger Craig. It was the first start and first decision for the big right-hander.

Craig had a perfect game until the sixth, when Del Rice doubled with one out and scored on Tony Taylor's single. Wally Moon was 3-for-4 and Gil Hodges drove in three runs with a homer and sacrifice fly for the Dodgers against right-hander Dick Drott (0-3).

Lew Burdette, 1-1 as a starting pitcher, added his second save in relief for the Braves, blanking the Reds on one hit for three innings after taking over for winner Carl Willey 2-0 and reliever Don McMahon. Hank Aaron, 4-for-6, hit a home run and Johnny Logan added an RBI double in a two-run fifth for Milwaukee that beat southpaw Jay Hook (1-2).

KC Making It Rough on Rest of American

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Kansas City Athletics, a gang of guys other clubs figured they could do without, may not be able to keep it up, but they've been making it tough on the big teams in the American League race.

After eight games with the defending champion Chicago White Sox, Cleveland and hot-running Detroit, the A's are tied for third at .500, just 1 1/2 games behind the first-place Tigers. They got there by beating Detroit 3-1 Wednesday night on a six-hitter by ex-Tiger Ray Herbert, a two-run single by Harry Chitt, a onetime Chicago Cub, and a home run by ex-New York Yankee Bob Cerv.

It was the second straight setback for the Tigers, who won their first five, but they stayed a half-game ahead of the Yankees, beaten 5-4 by Washington. Baltimore beat Boston 8-3 in the only other game scheduled in the AL.

In the National League, the first place Pittsburgh Pirates won their sixth straight, longest streak in either league, with a 3-2 decision at Philadelphia that put them a game ahead of the San Francisco Giants. Los Angeles defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-4 and Milwaukee rapped Cincinnati 8-5.

Herbert (2-0) walked just two and struck out five while putting away his second one-run game for the A's by blanking the Tigers on three hits over the last seven innings. Detroit scored on singles by Rocky Colavito, Chico Fernandez and Lou Berberet in the second. The A's, without a single product of their own farm system in the lineup, beat southpaw Hank Aguirre (0-1) in the fourth inning, when Chitt's single followed a single by Cerv and a double by Dick Williams. Cerv then homered in the eighth off reliever Bob Bruce.

Washington (5-5) tied the A's for third with a four-run eighth inning, capped by Jim Lemon's (two-on) homer, against lower Whitey Ford (1-1). Rookie Don Mincher also homered for the Senators.

Left-handed rookie Jim Kaat gained his first major league victory with a save by Pete Ramos. Kaat allowed just three hits, one Bill Skowron's solo homer in the seventh, walked two and struck out four before being lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth. The Yanks got their other runs, all unearned, in the fourth.

Arnie Portocarrero (1-0) had a two-hit shutout for seven innings and finished with a six-hitter for the Orioles in his first 1960 start.

Dry Forces Ruled Victor at Searcy

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Dry Forces have been ruled the victors in a disputed White County local option election.

County Judge Forrest Walker yesterday certified the results of the Nov. 4, 1958 vote as 3,420 for the dry forces and 3,214 for the wets.

The order, if not changed by a possible appeal, would mean that sale of alcoholic beverages would be prohibited. Searcy, Bald Knob, Beebe and some other areas now allow sale of either beer or liquor.

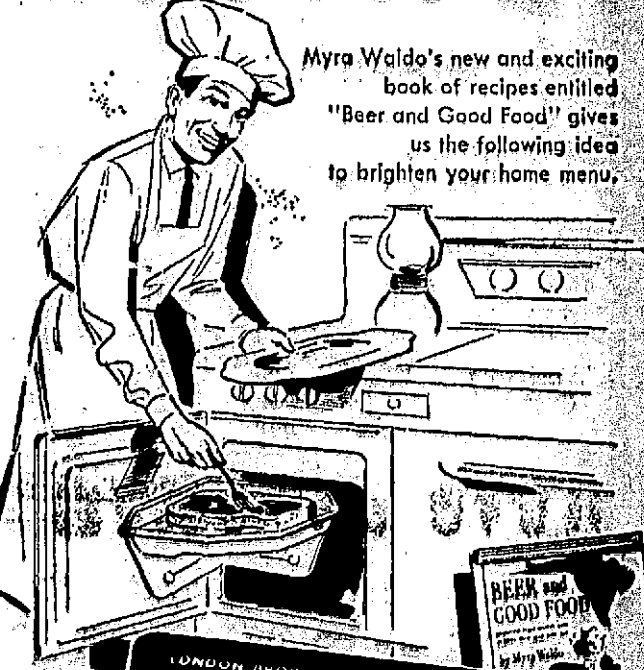

The White County Election Commission had listed the results as 3,811 wet and 3,700 dry.

The case reached the state supreme court once, on an appeal challenging the county judges' jurisdiction. The high court said the judge should rule on the case. Walker's order is the first in the suit.

Walker struck out all but 90 of the 310 absentee ballots cast, but presumed those 90 votes wet. He also disallowed all Bald Knob votes—417 wet and 312 dry—and added 10 dry votes each in Garner and Higgins Townships.

The "Big Three Conference" between Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin took place at Yalta in Russia in February, 1945.

For GOOD LIVING!

Myra Waldo's new and exciting book of recipes entitled "Beer and Good Food" gives us the following idea to brighten your home menu:

2 pound flank steak
1 cup salad oil
2 tablespoons wine vinegar
1 teaspoon soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon thyme
1 clove garlic, minced
1/4 pound Roquefort cheese
2 tablespoons heavy cream

Buy a very tender flank steak and have it scored, in a bowl, combine the oil, vinegar, soy sauce, thyme and garlic. Marinate the steak 12-24 hours, basting and turning it a few times.

Remove from the marinade and place on a greased rack. Broil 2 inches from the heat 5 minutes. Turn and broil the other side 4 minutes, then spread with the Roquefort mixed with cream. Broil 2 minutes longer. Cut diagonally across the grain into very thin slices. Serves 4-6.

There's a fun, tantalizing deliciousness to London Broil with Roquefort Cheese. Try this unusual recipe featured in Myra Waldo's new cookbook. Tall goblets of light, bright beer or ale are the perfect accompaniment to this robust meal. Family and guest will say: "Good for you!"

Franco May Tell Closely Guarded Plan

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

There is speculation in Spain that Generalissimo Francisco Franco may be about to disclose one of his most closely guarded secrets.

That would be something about his own plans to step down and when or if a king is to return to the Spanish throne.

The speculation arises from a recent meeting between Franco and the Royal Pretender, Don Juan De Borbon. Officially unconfirmed reports from that meeting say Franco recognized the Borbon's royal claim, thus eliminating other possible claimants.

Within the Borbon family, there are two possibilities—Don Juan De Borbon, or his son, Prince Juan Carlos.

The son, under Franco's guidance, has been given the education of royalty—attendance at all three of the nation's military academies, army, navy and air force.

Believes Terms Set

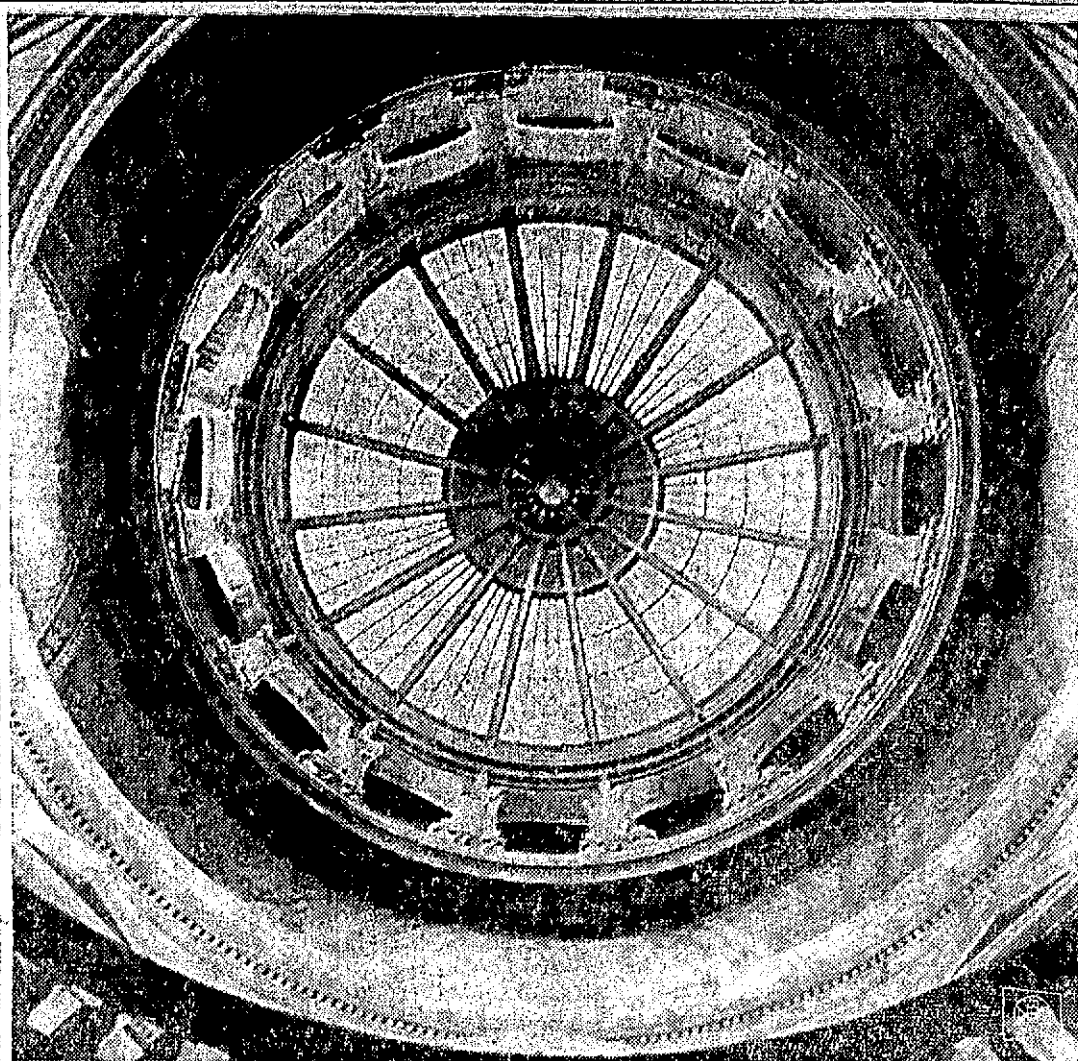

He now is embarking on a term of civilian studies under tutors. Monarchist sources say the father allowed his son to return to Spain only upon assurance from Franco that the Borbon dynasty would be the chosen one.

Don Juan is the man on whom monarchists currently are placing their bets.

Spanish law now provides that whoever takes the Spanish throne must be more than 30 years old, a Catholic, a Spaniard and from a recognized royal family. The 47-year-old Don Juan fits the description. His son still is too young.

Monarchist sources in France and Portugal expect Franco to give a hint of his plans during a forthcoming visit to Barcelona where he is expected to make at least two important speeches.

These sources believe one of Franco's first moves will be to bring forth a law establishing the rights and powers both of a chief of state and a chief of government, roles now filled by Franco. Franco himself has said repeatedly that Spain is a monarchy by that he has a life-time mandate to direct Spain's destiny.

Only one thing would cause him to renounce what he considers a providential duty. That would be all death.

Madrid sources do not expect Franco to make a truly forthright statement about the monarchy in they expect him to set a trend.

In Portugal, where the pretender lives in exile, royalist sources expect nothing concrete for two years. But they also believe it might come earlier.

Race Issue Troubling Methodists

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A racial policy, drawn up by a 70-member commission in a four-year, 200,000 study that involved public hearing in 24 cities across the country.

It recommends continuance of a separate administrative jurisdiction for Negroes, arguing that this gives them the strongest voice in official standing against any "racial discrimination or enforced segregation."

matter.

On the eve of the test, bishops of the church said Wednesday night that the outcome will have a greater effect than any other conference decision on the present and future strength of Methodism "in America and beyond."

Up for consideration was a complex, explosive report on racial policy, drawn up by a 70-member commission in a four-year, 200,000 study that involved public hearing in 24 cities across the country.

It recommends continuance of a separate administrative jurisdiction for Negroes, arguing that this gives them the strongest voice in official standing against any "racial discrimination or enforced segregation."

On the other hand, the report also proposed linking jurisdictional affairs, both white and Negro, more closely with the overall church government. This feature is strongly protested by some Southerners as an invasion of regional autonomy.

The 74 bishops, in their keynote episcopal address, commended the "general method and spirit" of the report, and said no course "will be acceptable that disregards the rights of any major segment of the church."

But they also reminded the 800 voting delegates of the church's official stand against any "racial discrimination or enforced segregation."

Renews Complaint Against Faubus

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs has renewed a complaint that Gov. Orval E. Faubus "did not have the facts" when he cancelled a forfeiture of a $5,000 bond posted by Mr. and Mrs. William E. Russell of Texarkana for Lewis Edward Jones.

Dobbs said yesterday the governor's official proclamation "bears out my contention" that Faubus acted on incomplete information.

The proclamation, Dobbs said, contended the forfeiture would work an undue hardship on the Russells and also that Jones did not appear at a scheduled hearing last Aug. 10 on advice of his attorneys.

Jones, arrested on a narcotics charge, later was picked up in Odessa, Tex., on a robbery charge from Hot Springs. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six years on the narcotics charge and three years in the robbery case.

Dobbs said that Jones was not in custody at the time of the Aug. 10 hearing, as contended in the proclamation. Dobbs ordered the bond forfeited after Jones failed to appear at that hearing.

Church Group Airs Several Key Issues

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Criticism of tobacco, requests for speeding integration and a renewed effort toward consolidation came before the 100th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U.S., which begins today.

The first order of business of general interest will be election of a moderator tomorrow night. The first order of business of general interest will be election of a moderator tomorrow night. The first order of business of general interest will be election of a moderator tomorrow night.

The Polomac Presbytery (Washington) is asking that the assembly urge its synods and presbyteries to speed up integration in their institutions.

Two others are asking the assembly to name committees to reopen efforts for union of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. (South), with the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. (North). The Union issue was closed in 1955 when a plan approved by the assembly was rejected by a majority of the 83 presbyteries.

Marianna Votes for Bond Issue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A $275,000 industrial bond issued was favored 815-27 by Marianna voters and parking meters were retained 248-159 at Dumas in special elections yesterday.

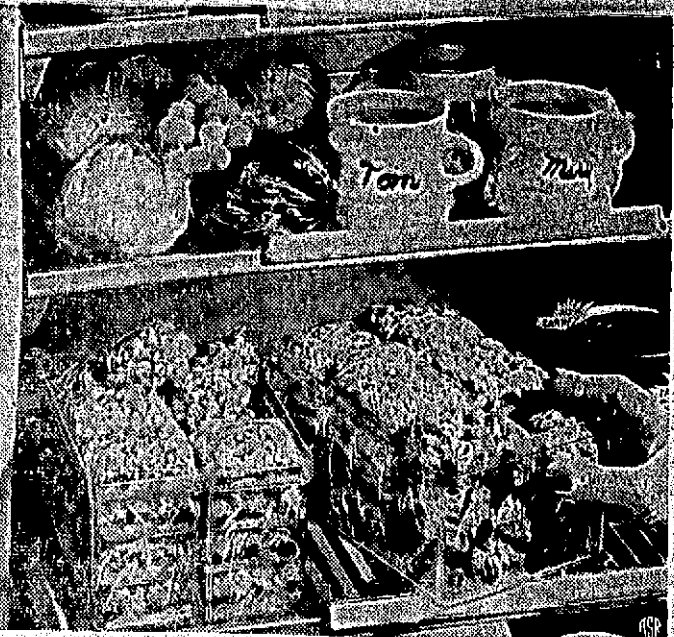

Six small precincts, still unreported, did not have enough votes to change the Marianna outcome. The bond money will be used to build a plant for a manufacturer of automobile trim.

Parking meters were installed at Dumas last year with the understanding that their retention would be put to a vote after one year.

Arkansas Bishop Is Elected

DENVER (AP)—The head of the Methodist Church's Arkansas-Louisiana area, Bishop Paul E. Martin of Little Rock, has been elected president-designate of the Methodist Council of Bishops. He will assume the presidency next year.

Tasty Between-Meal Snacks

The energy of children at this time of year is boundless. Yet it is the wise mother who knows that the food her youngsters eat not only supplies this pep, but also helps keep them in good physical condition in many ways.

After-school snacks can be popular with young people and at the same time supply some of the necessary daily nutrients. Cookies and cookie bars made with cereal plus a glass of milk are an ideal between-meal snack. Wrap cookies and bars in transparent saran in the amount you want your youngster to have. Pour milk in a cup, cover the milk with the transparent plastic. Then when school is out and children are at the refrigerator, all is ready for them to reach in for cereal cookies and milk.

Honey Crunch-Puffed Wheat Drops

3 cups presweetened puffed wheat
1 can (3 1/2 ounces) flaked coconut, toasted
1/2 cup honey
Place cereal and coconut in greased bowl and set aside. Combine honey, sugar, salt, and butter or margarine in saucepan. Bring to boil, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking to soft crack stage (270° F.). Remove from heat at once and pour syrup over cereal and coconut, stirring lightly until cereal is evenly coated. Drop by tablespoonfuls onto waxed paper. Press each tablespoonful of cereal together to shape into drops. Cool and set. Yield: 2 dozen.

Bullet in Head Fatal to Infant

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP)—Doctors lost a desperate struggle today to keep alive an infant born after the mother had died of a bullet wound in the forehead.

Carole Taylor, 24, died early Tuesday in the Taylor home. Her husband, Marvin, 26, later was booked on suspicion of murder. Police said he had admitted firing the fatal shot.

The couple's son was delivered by Caesarian section a half hour after the mother's death and died today after 23 hours and 55 minutes of life.

Physicians at Harbor General Hospital said a lack of oxygen between the time of the mother's death and the birth undoubtedly was a contributing factor in the baby's death.

Investigators said Mrs. Taylor was slain after a violent quarrel over the husband's drinking.

Goldfine Told He Must Stand Trial

BOSTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine, gift-giving friend of former White House aide, Sherman Adams, was told by a federal judge today that he must go on trial soon on charges of tax evasions totaling more than $700,000.

The New England industrialist and real estate operator, indicted with his secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, last month on tax evasions charges, had sought to have the trials delayed.

Counsel for the two defendants alleged that rights of his clients to a fair trial had been jeopardized by damaging publicity.

But Judge George C. Sweeney, rejecting the plea for a delay, said today he will set a trial date within a few days.

Mitchell is the name of counties in Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, North Carolina and Texas.

Specialists Summoned in Payola Case

By JOHN H. AVERILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—House payola investigators summoned three statistical specialists today to report their own interpretation of an analytical study of Dick Clark's TV disc jockey show.

The study, made for Clark by a New York statistical firm, reported that Clark could have had a personal financial interest in 27 per cent of the songs played on his matinee music show. By implication, it showed he had no personal interest in 73 per cent of the songs he used.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) promptly challenged the survey results, calling them misleading and incomplete.

"We have asked these three experts to analyze the study," Robert W. Lishman, chief counsel of the Legislative Oversight subcommittee, told a reporter.

Lishman implied Tuesday that Clark, the nation's best known disc jockey, has dished out payola to other deejays to promote records in which he has a personal financial stake.

Lishman raised this point in asking Thomas Noonan, research director for Billboard magazine, what weight is given to Clark in compiling the trade publication's weekly ratings of the top 100 hit tunes.

"Do the ratings, Lishman asked, 'take into account that he or his companies have paid payola to numerous disc jockeys throughout the country?'"

Noonan replied that payola was considered but that it was impossible to gauge it with any accuracy.

To this, Lishman inquired how Clark's influence could be measured "if you don't know the extent of payola he has paid?"

Noonan said Clark is "probably the single most influential person in the industry in determining the popularity of a record."

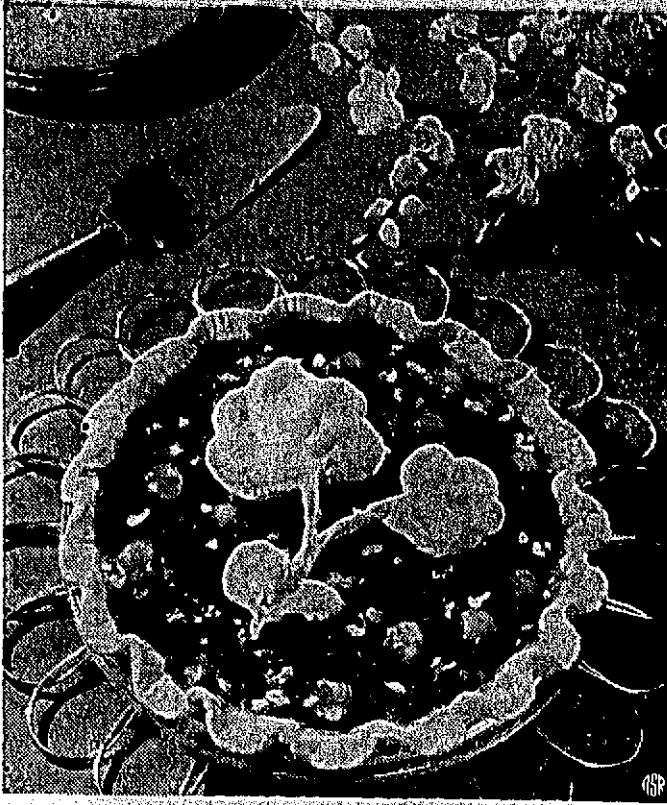

The controversial analytical study was prepared for Clark by Computech, Inc., a New York data processing service.

Price of Suits Are Going Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Men probably will have to pay about $5 more for a suit next fall, a manufacturer said today.

Max Uddell Sons & Co., Inc., in a report to retailers, said the projected increase will reflect not only added labor costs but the rise in the cost of piece goods and trimming.

Cherry Blossom Time

Cherry blossom time is any time... when you serve this mouth-watering Cherry Walnut Pie. It's as delicious as it looks here, and there's hardly any work involved. Sour red cherries and chopped walnuts are combined in black cherry-flavored gelatin flavored with a speck of cinnamon. An added garnish of sweetened whipped cream suggests cherry blossoms, to complete a timely dessert with real Spring time appeal.

Cherry Walnut Pie
1 package (3 ounces) black cherry-flavored gelatin
1/8 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar
1 cup hot water
Cherry juice and water to make 3/4 cup
1 can (20 ounces) sour red pie cherries, drained
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 baked 9-inch pie shell

Mix gelatin and cinnamon. Add sugar and dissolve in hot water. Add cherry juice and water. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in cherries and nuts. Pour into baked pie shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

Oil Industry Sees Way Out of Trouble

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The oil industry is beginning to see its way out of some of the troubles that led its shares to becoming a favorite target of the stock market bears.

Some oil officials are quite cheerful today about the outlook for the rest of the year. Their reports on first quarter profits are better than many bears had expected.

But many of the trouble spots still remain. The cheerfulness comes from a new look at them. The troubles aren't catching them unawares any more. And some companies are learning how to deal with them.

The troubles are capacity to produce far beyond present demands; heavy and rising refinery costs that bump up against price resistance; and imports that are too big to please most domestic producers but too small to please coastal refiners that depend upon them.

The brighter spots are moves that brought surplus supplies under better control; rising demand, especially abroad; North African oil discoveries that makes some companies independent of potential or actual controls over the once all-important Suez Canal; and rising profits for half of the oil companies in spite of all the troubles.

The three largest of the companies to report earnings for the first three months of the year show them ahead of the 1959 first quarter. This helped pull ahead the industry as a whole, although of the 21 companies reporting so far, exactly half show trailing profits.

Combined, the 21 companies made $325,000,000 after taxes, a gain of 8.2 per cent over the $300,000,000 the same two dozen made in the first three months of 1959.

Predictions for the rest of the year are even brighter. Texaco's chairman, August O. Long, notes that high gasoline stocks have had a depressing effect on prices. But he feels that rising demand will help solve the problem.

He sees consumption in the United States running three per cent ahead of last year, now that cars are out on the road again after the rough winter months.

The industry should do even better abroad, he feels. He sees demand in the rest of the non-Communist world topping last year's by a per cent.

At home, the oil industry has been in hot competition with natural gas in the home heating field. But March's blistering weather helped many companies cut their stocks of fuel oils.

Now, the gasoline sales picture is brighter. Not only is the weather better, but travel agencies are predicting the biggest vacation business yet, with more motorists on the road and traveling further.

Another Flight

TOKYO (AP)—Peter Gluckmann, 34-year-old watchmaker from San Francisco, took off today in a new attempt to set a nonstop distance solo flight record for light planes. He left for New York, 8,985 miles away. Present nonstop solo flight record for light planes is 7,000 miles.

Scholarship Winners Are Announced

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Eighteen Arkansas High School Students today were named winners of scholarships under the National Merit Scholarship program. Another student was cited as an honorary merit scholar.

Five students won National Merit Scholarships. In received awards sponsored by the Arkansas Opportunity Fund and three received grants from private organizations.

Lindsay A. Ray of Little Rock was named an honorary merit scholar, which carries no fund grant.

Amounts of the scholarships range from $100 to $1,500 a year. They are based on need of students.

Winners of the National Merit Scholarships were John R. Boston Jr. and David O. McNeil of Fayetteville, Richard L. Scott of Fort Smith, James F. Gaunt of Little Rock and F. Lee Brown Jr. of Marianna.

Arkansas Opportunity Fund Scholarship winners are Russell H. Moore Jr. and Connie K. Ringisen of Blytheville, Kim L. Mitchell of College Heights, Joan M. Dickerman of Eureka Springs, Ann L. Coope of Fort Smith, P. Frances Dillard of Hot Springs, Judy C. Hall of Little Rock, Randall C. Stephens of Siloam Springs, Harry L. Shannon of Star City, and Ronald E. Eddy of Waldo.

Joan E. Hartman of Arsenal and Larry A. Jansen of Fort Smith received Sears Foundation Merit Scholarships and Roy G. Kidwell of El Dorado was awarded a Amoco Foundation Merit Scholarship. Some 1,000 high school seniors over the nation were named merit scholars. Of these, 830 will share more than $4,000,000 in scholarship funds. The rest received honorary awards.

Says Cannon Signs With Houston

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams alleged today that All-America halfback Billy Cannon signed a fat contract with the Houston Oilers three days prior to the Louisiana State-Mississippi game in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1.

Cannon and the Houston owner, K. S. (Bud) Adams, have said the contract was signed under a goal post after Cannon played for LSU in the New Orleans bowl.

In an amended complaint filed today in U.S. District Court, the Rams said a recent deposition from Cannon revealed he signed a contract "to play football and render personal services" for Adams in Baton Rouge Dec. 29.

The Rams of the National Football League and the Oilers of the new American Football League are in a bitter court fight over Cannon.

The Rams of the National Football League signed to play for them.

The trial of the case is set for June 14 in federal court here.

Fight Extradition

HAVANA (AP)—One of two American desperadoes wanted for the slaying of a Florida skipper in the Bahamas says he will fight British attempts to extradite him.

Newsmen learned this Tuesday night from Alvin Thibault Jr., 25, of Torrance, Calif., and William Sees, 23, of Etowah, Ark., held by Cuban authorities.

The Cuban navy seized the pair 200 miles east of Havana where they had fled in the slain skipper's charter cruiser after the shooting Sunday.

Table said he planned to retain a Cuban lawyer to oppose any extradition move.

BUNS FROM A 200-YEAR-OLD RECIPE

Nearly two hundred years ago, spicy sweet raised buns were making frequent appearances on family and festive tables in Virginia. Today the same buns still rank as a favorite—not only in Virginia, however. Visitors to historic Williamsburg have taken the recipe back home with them; and now Williamsburg Buns are known and enjoyed in every section of the country.

The modern homemaker will find the recipe easier to make than did her colonial counterpart. Today's version is a batter bread, requiring no kneading and no shaping by hand.

For early morning breakfast, the buns may be baked, cooled and wrapped in foil the day before; then heated in the same foil wrap for 15 to 20 minutes in a 350° F. oven.

WILLIAMSBURG BUNS

1 1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup soft shortening
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
1/4 cup warm, not hot, water
3 1/2 to 4 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon mace

Scald milk. Add shortening, sugar, salt; cool to lukewarm. Add egg. Sprinkle or crumble yeast into water (warm for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed). Add to milk mixture. Add half the flour; beat until well mixed. Stir in enough more flour to make thick batter; add spices, beat well. Lightly brush top of batter with melted margarine. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk. Then beat well; turn into greased muffin pans, filling them 3/4 full. Let rise in warm place until dough rounds slightly above tops of cups. Bake at 400° F. 15 minutes, or until done. Makes 1 dozen.

CINNAMON PUFFS

Remove hot buns from pans; roll in 1/2 cup melted margarine or butter, then in 1/2 cup sugar combined with 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Little Things Stand Out in a Life

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's the little things that stand out in a life. The scientists may invent atom bombs and moon rockets, and the statesmen may argue for the world at summit meetings. Rebellions may arise and earthquakes come and go. Your average man is more likely to remember the day they came out with a new kind of beer bottle cap.

The big glories and big disasters find a page in human history. But it is the small glory, the little disaster, that write the history of the individual human heart.

Our memory—which is our life—is a summary of unforgettable personal moments which had no impact on the world at large but which changed us forever. Add these moments up and what do you have? Ourselves.

One man's mental album, for example, might contain such landmark moments as:

Stubbing your toe as a barefoot child and reaching the philosophic conclusion, in the midst of excruciating pain, that you could not be physically immortal, or you wouldn't hurt so.

Staring at yourself in the mirror as a small boy until your mind reeled at the mystery, "Who am I? What am I?"

The thrill of pride when you finally learned to whistle through your front teeth. Later, after you got your upper plate, you had the problem of learning how not to whistle.

The thrill of pride when you saved up enough money to buy your first pair of long pants and felt at last you were a man.

The thrill, 40 years later, when you put on your first pair of Bermuda shorts, of feeling almost like a boy again.

The pleasant discovery, the day your Boy Scout outfit arrived, that the guys really do go for a guy in uniform.

The later discovery that while women enjoy being put on a pedestal before marriage, after marriage they'd rather sit down, take their shoes off, and rest their feet.

The day you first noticed your mother was getting gray hair, and the day the barber confided your own hair was getting a bit thin on the top.

Going to the funeral of a loved one and knowing death at last had broken the magic of a closed family circle.

Turning the key in the front door of the first home you and your friendly neighborhood bank ever owned together.

Realizing for the first time that instead of going up stairs two at a time, you now paused and looked around for an escalator.

Being told by the doctor it was now time to start counting things you'd never before counted—vigilantes, cocktails, and calories.

Looking at yourself in the mirror and having an eerie feeling that make you what you are?

Veto Threats Won't Sway, Demos Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders declared today that Congress under their party's control will write its own legislative record without being swayed by veto threats or pressures from the White House and the Republicans.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, spoke along these lines in separate news conferences.

Both obviously were irked by the way Republican leaders came out of a conference with President Eisenhower Tuesday and announced the President was preparing a special message to prod Congress to get on with needed legislation and to oppose what the GOP chiefs called Democratic budget-busting proposals.

"By the time we get through," Rayburn said, "we are going to have a program we will be pleased with. I don't think it will please the Republicans because they're grabbing for an issue and can't find one. I don't think that will change much between now and election day."

As for the President's reported concern over spending by Congress, Rayburn said that in the eight annual appropriation bills passed by the House, the President's money requests have been cut about 244 million dollars.

"They used to have an old saying down our way that you shouldn't kick before you're spurred," Rayburn remarked. "I think he (the President) should wait a while."

Johnson said he thought it said that Eisenhower's advisors have "become so panicky" in this election year as to threaten possible vetoes of housing, old-age health and other proposals now pending in Congress.

Lar Again Shaken

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Panic-stricken residents again fled the battered city of Lar Tuesday to escape new quakes which toppled weakened buildings and added 15 more dead to the estimated toll of 500.

Persons caught in the latest quakes described them as heavy. They said the center of the city 550 miles south of Tehran was in ruins as a result of Sunday's two shattering quakes and the series of shocks that have followed.

And what are the landmark moments in your own mental album that make you what you are?

Nothing makes Iced Tea like

MORTON'S TEA

Yes, the Morton folks blend the choicest teas from north India and Ceylon right here at home with Southwest-style iced tea in mind. Standard teas will dilute both in flavor and color under the influence of the melting ice-cubes, but just try Morton's!

Available at your grocer's in the quarter and half-pound economy packs, in special quart-size iced tea bags, and in individual tea bags.

And just as good as your favorite MORTON'S POTATO CHIPS

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Enough's Enough

Every young cook-in-the-making learns early that adding too much of an ingredient spoils the fudge. Nutrition scientists are learning that adding too much of some nutrient ingredients spoils a good diet and is injurious to health. As in cooking, they find that the right amount of nutrient ingredients, of vitamins, mineral elements, and the calorie carriers—proteins, carbohydrates, fats—is essential for the optimum health of man or woman, boy or girl.

Doctors and nutritionists are beginning to take this firm stand that enough is enough. "We do require traces of certain mineral elements," warns Dr. Conrad Elvehjem, noted nutrition scientist and president of the University of Wisconsin, in a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. "But large intakes of these would be highly injurious to us." Other scientists caution against the toxic effects of supplementing diets with excessive amounts of vitamins A or D. An outstanding physician decries the excessive mineral and vitamin supplementation of diets for infants. Adding cereal foods, zwieback, fruits, vegetables, and eggs—as prescribed by pediatricians—meets the needs of normal, healthy infants, he says.

Fortunately for the adult, food is what the doctor orders. To assure an intake of all nutrients in the right amount, here is his simple recipe for getting an adequate, enough-is-enough diet:

- 2 servings of meat, fish, poultry, egg, or an alternate
- 2 servings of milk or cheese
- 4 or more servings of fruits and vegetables
- 4 or more servings of enriched or whole grain bread and cereal.

Rose was almost asleep when the telephone rang. She turned on the light, frightened. It was past midnight.

It was Pete. He had been drinking, she knew it, because his voice was slow and careful.

"Rose? I woke you?"

"Yes—never mind that. What's the matter?"

"Nothing. Have you heard from Karen?"

"No, Pete. I haven't. I promised you if I did hear I'd let you know."

"Man, I know, driving through Reno, said he thought he saw her on the street."

"She wouldn't be in Reno for the usual reasons without your knowing it; you can't go around getting divorces from people without notifying them."

"If she hadn't been so concerned, she would have laughed. He was supposed to be a lawyer."

"Maybe, she's in Mexico. Well, she won't get away with it."

"Where are you, Pete?"

"In town."

"You ought to stay there, the night's almost gone, she suggested."

"So I'd better not drive?" he asked. "Why not? There's no ice on the road."

She was shocked into silence and angered; it was a cold anger.

"Rose?"

Someone took the instrument from him and Dave Sutton spoke quietly.

"Rose? . . . Pete's all right. I tried to stop him from calling you. Don't worry, I'm doing the driving, and I'll get him home—far as our house anyway."

She said, "That's good, Dave," and he hung up. She sat a moment on the edge of the bed.

She thought, as she had once before: Perhaps he does love her; or maybe he's just lost something, like his wallet.

After a while she slept and toward morning dreamed. For the first time, dreaming of Mark, she saw his face.

"They were sitting together somewhere on a couch. The room was unfamiliar to her; there were a great many people in it; she saw none clearly. They moved and talked, but she did not hear what they said, for she was with Mark."

He did not speak to her, but turned his face toward her, put his hand over hers and smiled.

It was his own smile, quick, reassuring, warm—and in the dream, radiant.

She woke and it was long past daybreak, the sun streaming in.

When, walking toward the shower, she tried and failed to recapture all of it, the essence of the moment, she was grieved. Yet, standing beneath the cool falling water she thought: How wonderful I didn't dream it before this. I couldn't have endured it, earlier.

On the night before Ann came home, Jim asked, "How can we ever repay you, Rose?"

"In kind, in a y.e.e., sometime. Who knows when I'll need you? As a matter of fact," she said, "you've already done more for me, your two, than you'll ever know. But that won't prevent me from hollering if I need you and saying, come a-runnin'."

"From the ends of the earth, believe me."

She believed him.

He asked then, "What was your husband like, Rose? . . . I'm sorry, skip it, maybe I shouldn't have asked."

"I love to talk about Mark."

This amazed her. She certainly hadn't loved to talk about Mark at first, nor for some time. Even when she had to speak of him to their own children it ripped her like a saw.

Now she brought photographs, and talked.

"Didn't you tell me once that he was a lawyer?"

"Oh, yes, and a good one, in a small firm. He worked hard and played hard, too."

"What did he play?"

"Before I knew him, everything; football, baseball. Then tennis, and after we were married, golf. He was good with his hands, with tools, with animals, and—as son—as the kids outgrew the bassinets—with them, He was scared of them when they were brand-new. . . ."

She stopped and caught her breath, but Jim said, "That's all right, Rose."

"He had a temper, but controlled it," she went on, "I suppose you would say he was a relaxed man. No one ever had to sit on the edge of a chair when they were with Mark; they leaned back. He could listen by the hour. I can't. I get impatient and bored."

"You mean," said Jim, "you used to."

She looked at him and realized he was right.

"Maybe I've learned to listen," she admitted. "We all know about the cardinal sins, but I've come to think that there are some which go unlisted: boredom, indifference—neglect, too."

And added suddenly, "Undemonstrated love—that's a sin, too."

"Yes. You love one person so much that it fills you. You'd think it would overflow, but it doesn't; it can't."

He asked, "People should demonstrate love toward everybody?"

She was startled by his perception and realized that she rarely looked for sensitivity in those she thought of as outside people. "Yes, of course," she answered. "I don't mean personal love—or the shallow, run-over-the-mouth kind."

He said slowly, "I know what you mean. Ann's like that, she demonstrates it from inside; it shines out of her. Before we were married, and even after, I used to be jealous, until I realized it wasn't something which belonged exclusively to us. She can't help it."

"She's happy," Rose said. (To Be Continued).

Demand for Newspapers Hit New High

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Demand for newspapers is at an all-time peak, with 58 million copies being sold in the United States every day, D. Teunant Bryan, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., said today.

"He told the ANPA's annual convention that to meet the need 'the news media available to the average American today are greater in both number and variety than ever before in history.'"

Bryan, publisher of the Richmond, Va., News-Leader and the Times Dispatch, disputed any contention that mergers or consolidations of newspapers were a sign of newspaper debilitation.

"The mergers were nothing more than a natural working of economies through a joint production plant, and had nothing to do with demand for newspapers."

One of the committee reports to today's convention session cited a controversial Air Force manual as illustrating "how deep-rooted government's attitude is against the people's right to know." The report said further that the government uses more than 150 statutes as authority to withhold information, on subjects ranging from security to peanuts, but that a fight for a freer flow of information continues in both the Senate and House.

Housing Bill Faces Major House Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — A billion-dollar housing bill backed by Democrats faced a major House test today against the combined opposition of Republicans and Southern Democrats.

The coalition was making a determined effort to kill the bill quickly in an initial test on the question of whether the House will consider it. Their chances on the first test appeared doubtful.

A final vote was tentatively scheduled for Thursday.

If the bill isn't sharply watered down before then its chances of becoming law appeared dim. "It will never become law in its present form," said Republican

Fulbright Gets a German Medal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today received a medal from a German cultural group. Fulbright was selected by the Steuben-Schurz Society to receive its Longellow medal, given to those who foster cultural relations between Germany and other countries. The medal was presented by Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe.

Needs to Swim

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Anyone know how to teach a seal to swim?

The Marion County Humane Society wants to find out. It has a week-old female in a bathtub and no information about teaching procedures.

The seal was found stranded on a reef by a fisherman last Monday.

Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, predicting a veto that could be sustained.

The pending bill goes considerably farther than President Eisenhower recommended in his budget message last January.

Big Change in Foreign Dealings

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just a little over a year ago this country's handling of foreign affairs began to undergo a profound change, at least outwardly, although there was no way of knowing it for a while.

The word outwardly was chosen carefully. There has been no basic change in American foreign policy which still remains a standoff with the Soviets. In this past year there has been no solution of any major East-West issue.

But at least the way of handling the standoff is different. It began in April a year ago when Christian A. Herter was sworn in as secretary of state, succeeding John Foster Dulles who soon afterward died of cancer. The difference in handling foreign policy is rooted in the difference between them.

Dulles, the dominant type, was given to flamboyant, startling, even provocative statements as part of his foreign affairs strategy to threaten an enemy or try to push him off balance.

Herter is a mild man who pitches his foreign policy in a low, soft key. Dulles seemed to think nothing could be done unless he did it personally. Herter has more confidence in his subordinates, depends more on his staff.

Neither Dulles nor Herter has come up with an original basic policy. Both followed the Truman policy before them: stiff-arm the Soviets and the Red Chinese. But at least relations with the Soviets handled on a much milder plane than Dulles was capable of, seem to have improved.

In the long run this appearance may prove to be an optical illusion.

But the improvement in relations with the Soviet Union has its roots in factors which have nothing to do with Herter's manner. President Eisenhower has taken a more active part in foreign affairs, and the Soviets pushed Eisenhower into this.

Almost from the time Herter took over Eisenhower moved out of the Dulles shadow and began asserting himself. With the result that Herter is now pretty completely overshadowed by Eisenhower.

In the beginning, because he didn't know Herter as well as Dulles, Eisenhower may have felt impelled to take charge.

But in the background, forcing Eisenhower to move up front and center, was Premier Nikita Khrushchev who created such a crisis over his demands for the Allies to get out of Berlin he practically blackjacked Eisenhower into inviting him here to talk things over.

Further, the nimble Khrushchev had set an example for activity by a head of state by his own personal trips to countries and areas he wished to impress or influence.

The Khrushchev activity and travels were a challenge to Eisenhower to do the same. And Eisenhower did. This of necessity put Herter in the background.

It would be the crowning achievement of his life if at the summit conference in May or sometime before he leaves office next Jan. 20 Herter could work out an arrangement with the Soviets to give better relations some permanency.

There is no doubt he will try his best, since he works hard, despite his crippling arthritis. Otherwise, he will go down in history more as a caretaker than a leader. It's too soon yet to say which he is.

In underground Crystal Lake in Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo., there are many blind fish.

LIVE BETTER FOR LESS

Paar Is Best When Safety Is Forgotten

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jack Paar is at his best when he forgets to play it safe.

On Tuesday night's "Jack Paar Presents" special, he was playing it safe.

As a result, Paar was much less inventive than he was on his Jan. 26 special. Still, the hour contained some rewarding moments. His latest venture into prime time on NBC-TV was a one-hour trailer for the show he has been running in non-prime time for three years come July.

Because it was a commercial far, his "tonight" show, Paar's format followed his usual fashion. There was Paar's neat, amusing opening monologue, a couple of songs, some wild comedy, some tame comedy, some wild conversation, some tame conversation and, to make it official, numerous breaks for commercials.

Tuesday night's highlight was a sketch called, "Civilized People," starring Mike Nichols, Elaine May and Shelley Berman. It was a brilliant spoof of the cerebral approach to romantic triangles. Paar introduced the sketch by calling it "one of the funniest sketches I've ever seen."

It wasn't so much that it was funny. It was completely, immensely satisfying, filled with style, brilliant insight, freshness and was delivered at a nimble pace.

Earlier in the show, the frisky Paar threw Keely Smith off stride while she delivered the ballad, "Misty," and destroyed the mood. The show was on tape and, in fairness to us Keely Smith fans, should have been done over without Paar's intrusion. The spontaneity, such as it was, could have waited.

The special concluded with taped repeats of some famous moments in Paar's shows, including the celebrated February walkout and the March return-to-work. Those excerpts were so brief that they must have been meaningless to newcomers in the audience. Of the repeated material, Red Skelton scored with a hilarious chunk of comedy.

Cliff Arquette was wasted in a ballet number and Alex King was called upon by Paar to repeat one of the funny, unbelievable anecdotes he delivered on a Paar show. The repeat, though entertaining, was fragmented and flatter than the original.

That about tells the story of Jack's special: Entertaining, but flatter than the original.

Before "Paartime," there was NBC-TV's "Starline," a one-hour salute to the U.S.O. performers called, "soldiers in green." Unfortunately, the words and music of some khaki-clad popular songs couldn't evoke the required nostalgia. The trappings of the U.S.O. show, from audience and performer standpoints, would have helped immeasurably.

As for authenticity, the salute overlooked some of the U.S.O. shows' most familiar acts—accordion players, tap dancers and magicians.

strations and boycotts by Negroes will feature Gene Barry, Morris is scheduled for ABC-TV on Wednesday, May 11.

Eat Breakfast and Lose Weight!

Science has demonstrated that you can eat a good breakfast and still lose weight. Research at The State University of Iowa demonstrated that skipping breakfast or eating breakfast did not make the subjects lose weight provided the day's total calories remained constant. Subjects on a weight-reduction program felt better and performed better, especially in the late morning hours, when they had an adequate breakfast.

What is an adequate breakfast on a weight-reduction program? It has been established that such a breakfast should provide one-fourth of the daily caloric requirements and protein allowance, with not less than 15 grams of protein. Here is a breakfast which meets these requirements for women 25 to 65 years of age on a moderate weight-loss plan.

400-calorie Weight-Reduction Breakfast
Orange juice, 1/2 cup
Cereal, dry weight, 1 ounce with Milk, nonfat, 1 cup and 1 teaspoon sugar
Bread, white, enriched, 2 slices
Butter, 1 teaspoon

Figures Clark Favored Few Certain Discs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A college economics instructor testified today that a study of Dick Clark's television disc, "Jockey show," has convinced him that Clark favored records in which Clark had a personal financial stake.

Joseph L. Tyron, teacher of economics and statistics at George town University, told House payola investigators he had reached this "inescapable conclusion" in analyzing the same data used in a Clark-financed study to show an exact opposite conclusion.

Tyron was one of three statistical experts called by the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee today to provide expert testimony on the program study reported Tuesday by Computech, a New York statistical firm.

The statistical company study contended that a survey of records played on the Clark program over a two-year period demonstrated that Clark whirled platters in which he had a financial interest less than 30 per cent of the time.

Tyron, however, described the study as totally lacking in any value. He said it showed nothing.

Tyron, under questioning, said he based his opinions upon the data in the Computech survey, and declared: "It is my conclusion that Mr. Clark clearly and systematically favored records in which he had a financial interest."

The testimony opened the second day of hearings centering around Clark, whose American Bandstand program is carried

Legends in Film Land Die Very Hard

AP Movie-TV Writer
By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film-land legends die hard, and the one about H. B. Warner is returning to heckle Jeffrey Hunter. The 33-year-old actor has signed to play Jesus in "The King of Kings," a new treatment of the Christ story to be filmed by Samuel Bronston in Spain, Italy and the Holy Land for six million dollars. Jesus has often been portrayed fleetingly in films, but this is the first important biography since Cecil B. De Mille made his silent "King of Kings" in 1927.

Leann, fragile-looking Warner played the title role for De Mille, and his acting career was blighted for years thereafter. During one of his comebacks, the actor told me producers could see him in nothing but religious roles.

Athletic Hunter realizes the danger. "I know there are certain risks involved. But I'm willing to take them because the part is so great," Hunter said.

"I'm not worried about getting typed. Gee, I've played so many kinds of roles in my career that I don't think this one could stop me."

Hunter was playing a widely divergent role when we talked. He stars in "Hell to Eternity" as Guy Gabaldon, Los Angeles Marine who captured 2,000 Japanese on Okinawa.

"When I got back from the Okinawa locations, they sent me the scripts," he said. "I thought it was great and asked what role they had in mind for me. 'Like maybe Jesus Christ,' they said. I never said.

The actor isn't certain how he was chosen. He has done no Biblical roles, didn't even test for the film. He hasn't even talked with the film makers: Bronston, director Nick Ray and writer Phil Yordan, who are getting ready to shoot in Spain.

The only hint he has is that Ray and Yordan both worked on "The True Story of Jesse James," in which Hunter played the bandit's brother Frank.

Benjamin Franklin became a vegetarian to save money. He found that vegetarian broth served the same purpose and cost less than a diet of beef and cider.
